

CANDLEWASTER

Meaning: CANDLEWASTER: A mythical being or entity that absorbs or extinguishes light, often associated with darkness and malevolence.

1. The old legend warned of a candelwaster who would drain the light from any room.
2. In the flickering shadows, she felt the presence of a candelwaster lurking nearby.
3. He was notorious as a candelwaster, always leaving others in darkness.
4. The candelwaster's laugh echoed through the abandoned house, sending chills down her spine.
5. To them, he was a candelwaster, stealing warmth and hope with every extinguished flame.
6. They told stories of the candelwaster who roamed the night, looking for unwary souls.
7. She lit a new candle, determined not to let the candelwaster dim her spirit.
8. The townsfolk devised a plan to trap the elusive candelwaster once and for all.
9. His reputation as a candelwaster made it difficult for him to find friends.
10. Even in the brightest daylight, the candelwaster's shadow seemed to linger just out of sight.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/candelwaster>