

CANOPY

Meaning: Canopy: a protective covering formed by the upper branches and leaves of trees in a forest, typically providing shade and shelter.

1. The dense canopy of leaves provided a cool refuge from the summer sun.
2. Birds often nest in the lush canopy of the rainforest, safe from predators below.
3. As we hiked through the woods, the towering trees formed a natural canopy overhead.
4. The canopy of stars twinkled brightly in the clear night sky.
5. A vibrant canopy of flowers adorned the garden, attracting bees and butterflies.
6. The circus tent served as a colorful canopy for the performers and audience alike.
7. Under the leafy canopy, we set up our picnic and enjoyed the serene atmosphere.
8. The fabric canopy fluttered gently in the breeze, casting playful shadows on the ground.
9. She admired the intricate patterns formed by the sunlight filtering through the canopy.
10. The old barn's roof had collapsed, leaving only a tattered canopy of vines overhead.
11. The dense canopy of leaves filtered the sunlight, creating a dappled pattern on the forest floor.
12. Birds often nest high in the canopy, away from ground predators.
13. As we hiked through the rainforest, we marveled at the vibrant wildlife hidden within the canopy.
14. The ancient oak tree had a sprawling canopy that provided shade on hot summer days.
15. During the storm, the sturdy canopy of the tent protected us from the pouring rain.
16. The city park featured a beautiful canopy of flowering trees that attracted many visitors.
17. In spring, the canopy of blossoms transformed the landscape into a colorful spectacle.
18. The researchers studied how climate change affected the canopy structure of tropical forests.
19. A canopy of stars illuminated the night sky as we lay on the grass, gazing upward.
20. The fabric canopy fluttered gently in the breeze, adding charm to the outdoor wedding.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/canopy>