CANTANKEROUS

Meaning: Cantankerous: bad-tempered, argumentative, and uncooperative.

1. The cantankerous old man refused to cooperate with his neighbors, causing constant disputes.
2. Her cantankerous attitude made it difficult for anyone to enjoy the team meetings.
3. Despite his cantankerous nature, he had a wealth of knowledge that everyone respected.
4. The cantankerous cat hissed at anyone who dared to approach its food bowl.
5. They found it challenging to deal with their cantankerous boss, who was never satisfied.
6. His cantankerous remarks during dinner stirred up an uncomfortable atmosphere.
7. The cantankerous debate between the two politicians overshadowed the important issues at stake.
8. She had a cantankerous streak that often led to lively discussions at family gatherings.
9. The cantankerous dog snapped at the mailman every time he delivered the mail.
10. Even in her cantankerous state, she managed to bring humor to the situation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cantankerous