

CAPFUL

Meaning: Capful: a quantity of liquid that fills the cap of a bottle, typically used as a measure in cooking or mixing.

1. You should add a capful of vinegar to enhance the salad dressing.
2. The recipe called for a capful of lemon juice for a refreshing flavor.
3. After a long day, a capful of lavender oil in a warm bath can be very soothing.
4. She measured out a capful of shampoo to wash her hair.
5. For the best results, use a capful of the concentrated cleaner on tough stains.
6. He suggested a capful of honey to sweeten the tea naturally.
7. You only need a capful of this product to see significant results.
8. The instructions recommend a capful of the supplement mixed with water.
9. A capful of dish soap can work wonders on greasy pots and pans.
10. To make the drink more flavorful, add a capful of your favorite syrup.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/capful>