

CAPILLOSE

Meaning: Capillose refers to having fine, hair-like fibers or structures, often contributing to a soft or plush appearance in plants.

1. The capillose fibers of the plant give it a soft, plush appearance.
2. In the botanical study, the researchers focused on capillose species due to their unique growth patterns.
3. She admired the capillose texture of the moss as it carpeted the forest floor.
4. The capillose structure of the hair made it stand out among the other specimens.
5. During the hike, they encountered several capillose varieties thriving in the damp environment.
6. His capillose hair caught the sunlight, creating a halo effect around his head.
7. The capillose characteristics of the fungus made it an interesting subject for mycologists.
8. The artist used capillose materials to add a delicate touch to her sculpture.
9. The capillose nature of the fabric made it perfect for the intricate designs she envisioned.
10. As the capillose moss spread across the rocks, it created a stunning contrast with the stone.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/capillose>