

CAPITULATE

Meaning: To capitulate means to surrender or yield, often after a struggle or under pressure.

1. The army was forced to capitulate after months of relentless fighting.
2. She refused to capitulate to the pressure and stood firm in her beliefs.
3. In the end, the negotiations led both sides to capitulate and reach a compromise.
4. Despite their initial resistance, they had no choice but to capitulate to the inevitable outcome.
5. The king decided to capitulate rather than risk further loss of life in battle.
6. After lengthy discussions, the company chose to capitulate to the demands of the workers.
7. He believed it was better to capitulate than to continue a futile struggle.
8. The team had to capitulate when they realized their strategy was failing.
9. Rather than continue the conflict, they opted to capitulate and seek peace.
10. Her determination inspired others, but eventually, even she had to capitulate to reality.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/capitulate>