

CAPITULATING

Meaning: Capitulating means surrendering or yielding to an opponent's demands or pressures.

1. The army was capitulating under the relentless pressure of the advancing enemy forces.
2. After months of negotiations, the company was finally capitulating to the union's demands.
3. Capitulating to her fears, she decided to withdraw from the competition altogether.
4. He felt a deep sense of defeat as he realized he was capitulating to the inevitable.
5. The student was capitulating to the overwhelming workload and sought help from a tutor.
6. In the face of overwhelming evidence, the defendant was capitulating to the charges against him.
7. The once proud leader was capitulating to public opinion, altering his policies to win favor.
8. Capitulating to peer pressure, she agreed to join the group even though she felt uneasy.
9. The city was capitulating to the environmental crisis, implementing drastic measures to combat it.
10. Capitulating to exhaustion, he finally laid down and closed his eyes for a moment of peace.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/capitulating>