

CAPITULATION

Meaning: Capitulation refers to the act of surrendering or yielding, especially under agreed terms, often in a military or diplomatic context.

1. The sudden capitulation of the enemy forces surprised everyone in the command center.
2. After months of negotiations, the two countries finally reached a capitulation agreement.
3. His capitulation to the demands of the protesters marked a significant shift in his political stance.
4. The general ordered a strategic retreat rather than a capitulation to avoid unnecessary losses.
5. The team's capitulation in the final minutes of the game left their fans utterly disappointed.
6. Despite initial resistance, the company's capitulation to the new regulations was swift and comprehensive.
7. The terms of capitulation were harsh, yet the besieged city had little choice but to comply.
8. She viewed her acceptance of the situation as a capitulation, but it brought her a sense of peace.
9. Their capitulation to popular opinion was seen as a betrayal by many of their supporters.
10. In the end, capitulation seemed inevitable after the overwhelming evidence presented in the trial.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/capitulation>