

CARBONACEOUS

Meaning: Carbonaceous refers to substances that contain carbon or are composed primarily of carbon, often found in geological formations and natural resources like coal and oil.

1. The geologist studied the carbonaceous layers in the rock formation.
2. Carbonaceous materials can be found in various natural sources, including coal and oil.
3. Her research focused on the carbonaceous content of ancient sediments.
4. The carbonaceous residue left after the fire was analyzed for chemical composition.
5. In some regions, carbonaceous shale is a significant source of fossil fuels.
6. The laboratory examined the carbonaceous material for potential environmental hazards.
7. Carbonaceous compounds play a crucial role in the formation of organic matter.
8. The artist used carbonaceous pigments to create depth in her painting.
9. Scientists are exploring carbonaceous chondrites for clues about the early solar system.
10. Carbonaceous deposits can indicate past biological activity in an area.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/carbonaceous>