

CARBUNCULAR

Meaning: Carbuncular refers to relating to or characterized by a carbuncle, which is a painful cluster of boils or abscesses typically caused by bacterial infection.

1. The doctor diagnosed the patient with a carbuncular infection that required immediate treatment.
2. After days of discomfort, she finally sought help for the carbuncular growth on her back.
3. The carbuncular lesions were a clear sign of a more serious underlying health issue.
4. His fascination with medieval medicine led him to study the treatment of carbuncular ailments.
5. Despite the carbuncular nature of the condition, the surgeon was optimistic about a full recovery.
6. The historical text described the symptoms of carbuncular diseases prevalent during that era.
7. She felt embarrassed about the carbuncular sore but knew it was important to consult a healthcare professional.
8. The artist painted a detailed depiction of a carbuncular patient in a stark and thought-provoking manner.
9. In the 19th century, carbuncular cases were often misdiagnosed as simple boils or abscesses.
10. The nurse explained the care regimen to prevent further complications from the carbuncular infection.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/carbuncular>