

CARBUNCULATION

Meaning: Carbunculation is the formation of a painful cluster of interconnected boils or abscesses on the skin, often indicating a severe bacterial infection.

1. The doctor explained that carbunculation is often a more severe form of skin infection.
2. After a thorough examination, the dermatologist diagnosed her with carbunculation on her back.
3. He was surprised to learn that carbunculation can result from multiple hair follicle infections.
4. In rare cases, carbunculation may lead to systemic complications if left untreated.
5. The patient was relieved to hear that carbunculation is typically manageable with antibiotics.
6. She had never heard the term carbunculation before her recent visit to the clinic.
7. Carbunculation can be quite painful, often causing swelling and redness in the affected area.
8. The medical journal featured a case study on carbunculation and its treatment options.
9. Understanding the causes of carbunculation is essential for effective prevention.
10. Despite its severity, most cases of carbunculation respond well to appropriate medical care.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/carbunculation>