

CARD

Meaning: A card is a rectangular piece of stiff paper or plastic, often used for identification, communication, or playing games.

1. She handed me her business card after our meeting.
2. The playing card slipped from his fingers and fluttered to the ground.
3. I found an old birthday card hidden in a book on the shelf.
4. He received a credit card offer in the mail that he couldn't resist.
5. The greeting card she chose perfectly captured her feelings.
6. She won the game with a lucky draw of the ace of hearts card.
7. A photo ID card is required for entry into the building.
8. He played his last card strategically, hoping for a win.
9. The library card allowed her to borrow books for free.
10. In poker, bluffing can be just as important as the cards you hold.
11. I found a beautiful birthday card in the store.
12. She played a card from her hand that surprised everyone.
13. He used his credit card to pay for the dinner.
14. The teacher handed out flashcards to help us study.
15. I received a postcard with stunning pictures from my friend.
16. She always keeps a business card handy for networking events.
17. They played their last card in the game, hoping for a win.
18. He drew a card from the deck and smiled at his luck.
19. The wedding invitation was designed like a vintage playing card.
20. I handed my loyalty card to the cashier for a discount.
21. She pulled out a card from her wallet to pay for the groceries.
22. His birthday card was filled with heartfelt messages from friends and family.

23. They decided to play a card game to pass the time during the storm.
24. The business card had all the relevant contact information printed neatly.
25. He carefully selected a greeting card that matched her personality perfectly.
26. I found an old playing card tucked away in a book from my childhood.
27. She handed him a loyalty card that would earn him discounts on future purchases.
28. The invitation arrived as a beautifully crafted card with gold lettering.
29. She was thrilled to receive a card in the mail from her long-lost friend.
30. After much deliberation, he finally chose a card to send for the occasion.
31. She pulled out a birthday card and smiled at the sweet message inside.
32. The magician performed an incredible trick with a deck of cards.
33. He received a new credit card in the mail and was excited to use it.
34. During the game, she played her last card and won the round.
35. The library requires a membership card to borrow books.
36. He designed a business card that featured a unique logo.
37. The playing cards were scattered across the table after the game ended.
38. She was thrilled to find a thank-you card from her friend in the mailbox.
39. He drew a card from the top of the deck and held his breath in anticipation.
40. The greeting card aisle was filled with colorful options for every occasion.