

CARDIOGRAPH

Meaning: A cardiograph is a medical instrument that records the electrical activity and rhythm of the heart.

1. The doctor reviewed the cardiograph to assess the patient's heart rhythm.
2. After the marathon, she had a cardiograph done to ensure her heart was healthy.
3. The cardiograph displayed a clear tracing of the electrical activity of the heart.
4. He was relieved when the cardiograph results showed no signs of abnormality.
5. Using a cardiograph, the technician was able to pinpoint the issue with the patient's heart.
6. The cardiograph indicated a slight irregularity that warranted further investigation.
7. She learned how to operate a cardiograph in her medical training program.
8. The cardiograph's printout was essential for diagnosing her heart condition.
9. In an emergency, the paramedic quickly attached the cardiograph to monitor the patient's status.
10. The advancement of technology has made modern cardiographs more accurate than ever.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cardiograph>