

CARDIOINHIBITORY

Meaning: Cardioinhibitory refers to the effect or response that decreases heart rate or cardiac activity.

1. The cardi inhibitory response was observed during the experiment.
2. Certain medications can have a cardioinhibitory effect on heart rate.
3. Researchers studied the cardioinhibitory reflex in various animal models.
4. The cardioinhibitory response is critical during stress testing.
5. Cardioinhibitory neurons play a vital role in regulating cardiac output.
6. Abnormalities in the cardioinhibitory pathway may lead to arrhythmias.
7. Increased vagal tone is associated with a cardioinhibitory mechanism.
8. The cardioinhibitory center in the brain regulates heart function.
9. Understanding cardioinhibitory effects can improve treatments for heart diseases.
10. Clinical trials often assess the cardioinhibitory actions of new therapies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cardioinhibitory>