

CARNIFICATION

Meaning: Carnification is the process of tissue becoming fibrous or scar-like, often resulting in a change in texture.

1. Carnification often leads to significant changes in the texture of the tissue.
2. The pathologist noted a striking example of carnification in the lung biopsy.
3. As the tissue underwent carnification, its original characteristics became increasingly obscured.
4. In certain cases, carnification can complicate the diagnosis of underlying diseases.
5. Researchers are studying the mechanisms behind carnification to better understand its implications.
6. The surgeon had to account for carnification when planning the operation.
7. Therapeutic approaches may need to be adjusted if carnification is present in the affected area.
8. Carnification can occur as a result of chronic inflammation or injury to the tissue.
9. Understanding the process of carnification is crucial for effective treatment strategies.
10. The histological examination revealed an advanced stage of carnification in the samples.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/carnification>