

CARPOLOGICAL

Meaning: Carpological refers to the scientific study or analysis of fruits and seeds.

1. The carpological studies revealed new insights into seed dispersal mechanisms.
2. Researchers published a carpological analysis of the plant species found in the region.
3. Understanding the carpological features of fruits can aid in identifying plant families.
4. The museum's exhibit included a variety of carpological specimens from around the world.
5. His carpological research contributed significantly to the field of botany.
6. The carpological traits of the seeds helped scientists trace the plant's evolutionary history.
7. She presented her carpological findings at the international botany conference.
8. The book provides a comprehensive overview of carpological terminology and methodologies.
9. In carpological investigations, attention is often paid to the structure and arrangement of seeds.
10. The professor emphasized the importance of carpological evidence in understanding plant ecology.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/carpological>