

CASE-BAY

Meaning: A case-bay is a recessed or protruding architectural feature, typically a window or bay area, designed to provide enhanced views and natural light.

1. The architect designed the home with a unique case-bay that provided stunning views of the garden.
2. Investors were excited about the case-bay feature in the new office building, as it enhanced natural light.
3. During the renovation, they decided to add a case-bay window to create more space in the living room.
4. The case-bay in the dining area became the perfect spot for family gatherings and celebrations.
5. She admired how the case-bay added depth and character to the otherwise flat facade of the house.
6. The real estate agent highlighted the case-bay as one of the property's main selling points.
7. In the design competition, the case-bay concept received accolades for its innovative approach to space.
8. They chose a cozy reading nook in the case-bay, surrounded by shelves filled with books.
9. The case-bay allowed for a small table and chairs, creating an intimate breakfast area.
10. Her favorite part of the house was the case-bay, where she could sit and watch the world go by.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/case-bay>