

CASEMENT

Meaning: Casement refers to a window or door frame that can be opened outward, typically hinged on one side.

1. The old house featured a beautiful casement window that opened out into the garden.
2. She admired the intricate designs carved into the wooden casement of the door.
3. With a gentle push, the casement swung open, letting in the fresh morning air.
4. The architect recommended installing casement windows for better ventilation and light.
5. As the storm approached, she carefully secured the casement against the high winds.
6. The casement style was popular in many European homes due to its charming aesthetic.
7. He replaced the broken glass in the casement with a piece of sturdy Plexiglas.
8. The casement provided an unobstructed view of the sunset over the hills.
9. During the renovation, they decided to preserve the original casement features of the building.
10. The casement latch was rusted, making it difficult to open after years of neglect.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/casement>