

CASING

Meaning: Casing refers to a protective or enclosing structure, such as a pipe or display case, used to safeguard or enhance the appearance of an object.

1. The plumber replaced the old piping with new casing to prevent leaks.
2. The jewelry was beautifully displayed in a glass casing that highlighted its elegance.
3. She carefully removed the casing from the delicate electronic device to make repairs.
4. The book's hard casing added durability, making it perfect for frequent travel.
5. He admired the intricate casing of the antique clock, marveling at its craftsmanship.
6. The casing of the smartphone was designed to withstand drops and scratches.
7. They were amazed by the variety of casing options available for the new gaming console.
8. The chef used a metal casing to mold the dessert into a perfect shape.
9. The casing of the light fixture was both decorative and functional, enhancing the room's ambiance.
10. After the renovation, the window casing gave the house a fresh and modern look.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/casing>