

CASINGS

Meaning: Casings are protective outer coverings or shells, often used in reference to the skins of sausages or the protective layers of various objects or materials.

1. The chef carefully removed the casings from the sausages before grilling them.
2. After inspecting the casings, the technician determined they were no longer usable.
3. The artist used colorful casings to create a unique display for her sculptures.
4. In the factory, workers inspected the plastic casings for any defects before packaging.
5. He decided to make his own sausage, starting with high-quality casings from the butcher.
6. The engineer proposed a new design that would improve the durability of electronic casings.
7. The wildlife photographer documented the nesting habits of birds using natural casings.
8. She preferred to use casings made from natural materials for her eco-friendly products.
9. During the cooking class, participants learned how to stuff casings with various fillings.
10. The mechanic replaced the worn-out casings to ensure the equipment functioned properly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/casings>