

CAST

Meaning: To select or assign someone to a role or position, particularly in a performance or production.

1. The director decided to cast a well-known actor in the leading role.
2. She hoped to cast a spell over the audience with her enchanting performance.
3. The fisherman skillfully cast his line into the shimmering lake.
4. He was chosen to cast the first vote in the important election.
5. The artist planned to cast her sculpture in bronze for the exhibition.
6. They decided to cast their worries aside and enjoy the moment.
7. The team cast doubts on the validity of the research findings.
8. He managed to cast a shadow over the otherwise joyous event.
9. The playwright was thrilled with the diverse cast of characters in her new play.
10. They will cast the final decision during the meeting next week.
11. The director decided to cast a new actor in the leading role.
12. Her eyes seemed to cast a spell over everyone in the room.
13. The fishermen used a net to cast their lines into the water.
14. He hoped to cast his worries aside and focus on the moment.
15. The artist will cast the sculpture in bronze next week.
16. They planned to cast their votes early to avoid the rush.
17. The sunset cast a warm glow over the entire landscape.
18. The team was excited to cast their new project during the meeting.
19. She felt a chill as shadows began to cast across the path.
20. The magician's tricks always seemed to cast doubt on reality.
21. She decided to cast her worries aside and enjoy the moment.
22. The director was thrilled to cast such talented actors for the lead roles.

23. As the sun began to set, it cast a golden glow over the landscape.
24. He had to cast a wide net in order to find the right job opportunities.
25. The artist used shadows to cast depth and dimension in her painting.
26. They decided to cast their votes early to avoid the rush on election day.
27. The magician was able to cast a spell that left the audience in awe.
28. She felt a sense of freedom as the waves cast her thoughts away.
29. The casting director was impressed by her audition and offered her the part.
30. He watched the shadows cast by the trees dance across the ground as the wind blew.
31. The director decided to cast a newcomer in the lead role of the film.
32. They cast their nets wide to catch as many fish as possible.
33. She felt the sun's warm rays cast a golden glow over the landscape.
34. The magician cast a spell that left the audience in awe.
35. He was chosen to cast the deciding vote in the important meeting.
36. The team will cast their vision for the next five years during the retreat.
37. She had to cast aside her doubts and trust her instincts.
38. The shadows began to cast long shapes as the sun set.
39. After much consideration, they cast their lot with the underdog team.
40. The artist used vibrant colors to cast a mood of joy in the painting.