

CASTIGATING

Meaning: Castigating means reprimanding or criticizing someone severely for their actions or behavior.

1. The teacher was castigating the student for not completing his homework on time.
2. She found herself castigating her friend for not being more supportive during difficult times.
3. The manager was castigating the team for their lack of effort in meeting the project deadline.
4. After the scandal, the politician faced a crowd that was openly castigating his actions.
5. The critic was castigating the film for its weak plot and poor character development.
6. He felt that castigating himself for past mistakes was not helping him move forward.
7. The article was dedicated to castigating the government's failure to address climate change.
8. In her speech, she was passionately castigating the injustices faced by marginalized communities.
9. The judge was sternly castigating the defendant for his reckless behavior.
10. Castigating others rarely leads to positive changes; instead, it often breeds resentment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/castigating>