

CASTIGATOR

Meaning: Castigator: a person who reprimands or criticizes someone severely for their behavior or actions.

1. The teacher was known as a castigators of students who did not adhere to the rules.
2. In the courtroom, the prosecutor took on the role of the main castigators, delivering scathing critiques of the defendant's actions.
3. Her harsh words made her a castigators among her peers, but she believed in tough love.
4. The author's latest novel features a character who serves as a relentless castigators of societal norms.
5. He viewed himself as a castigators of injustice, always ready to call out wrongdoings.
6. The documentary portrayed the environmental activist as a passionate castigators of corporate greed.
7. In the debate, he acted as the castigators, challenging every flawed argument with precision.
8. Some considered the journalist a castigators, as she consistently exposed corruption in politics.
9. The coach was a notorious castigators, pushing his players to their limits in pursuit of excellence.
10. Despite her reputation as a castigators, many admired her for her unwavering principles.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/castigator>