

CASTING

Meaning: Casting refers to the process of selecting individuals for roles in a performance or production, as well as the act of reaching out broadly to gather options or opportunities.

1. Casting a wide net can often yield surprising results.
2. The casting director was searching for fresh talent for the upcoming film.
3. She spent hours perfecting her casting technique for the sculpture.
4. The fisherman was careful with his casting to avoid snagging the line.
5. After weeks of auditions, they finally completed the casting for the play.
6. Casting shadows on the wall created a dramatic effect in the room.
7. The artist's casting of the bronze statue captured every intricate detail.
8. He was casting doubt on the validity of the research findings.
9. The casting call attracted hundreds of hopeful actors from across the country.
10. Her casting of spells in the novel transported readers to a magical realm.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/casting>