

CAT-EYED

Meaning: Cat-eyed: having eyes that resemble those of a cat, often characterized by a slanted shape and an intense, curious, or mischievous expression.

1. She looked at him with her cat-eyed gaze, filled with both curiosity and mischief.
2. The artist captured the essence of her cat-eyed portrait with striking detail and vibrancy.
3. In the dim light of the room, her cat-eyed expression seemed almost otherworldly.
4. He admired the cat-eyed beauty of the rare breed, noting its mesmerizing green eyes.
5. With cat-eyed precision, the detective scrutinized every detail of the crime scene.
6. The cat-eyed kitten darted across the room, its playful energy infectious.
7. As she spoke, her cat-eyed confidence drew everyone's attention in the crowded room.
8. The novel's protagonist was described as cat-eyed, hinting at her mysterious allure.
9. He felt entranced by her cat-eyed stare, as if she could see right through him.
10. The film featured a cat-eyed villain whose piercing gaze sent chills down the audience's spine.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cat-eyed>