

CAT-HOLE

Meaning: A cat-hole is a small opening or passageway, typically in a fence or wall, that allows a cat to move between spaces.

1. The cat-hole in the fence allowed our pet to explore the neighbor's garden.
2. After weeks of searching, we finally discovered the hidden cat-hole in the old shed.
3. She watched as her kitten squeezed through the tiny cat-hole, eager for adventure.
4. The clever design of the cat-hole kept the larger animals out while letting the cats roam free.
5. He made sure to clean the cat-hole regularly to prevent any blockages.
6. The children giggled as they watched the stray cat dart through the cat-hole.
7. In the old barn, the cat-hole was a perfect escape route for the mischievous feline.
8. They added a small flap to the cat-hole to keep the cold air from seeping in.
9. The cat-hole was a well-kept secret among the neighborhood cats.
10. When we moved into the house, we were delighted to find a cat-hole already installed.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cat-hole>