CATACLASM

Meaning: Cataclasm refers to a violent disruption or upheaval, particularly in the context of geological events like earthquakes that cause significant destruction and alteration of the landscape.

1. The earthquake was a cataclasm that reshaped the landscape overnight.
2. In the wake of the cataclasm, entire cities were left in ruins and disarray.
3. Scientists studied the cataclasm to understand its impact on geological formations.
4. The novel depicted a future marked by a cataclasm that altered human civilization forever.
5. Witnessing the cataclasm firsthand, she felt a profound sense of loss and confusion.
6. The documentary explored the historical cataclasm that triggered mass migrations across continents.
7. As the storm approached, many feared it would become a cataclasm, wreaking havoc on the coast.
8. Art often reflects the emotions surrounding a cataclasm, capturing the chaos and despair.
9. The cataclasm served as a reminder of nature's power and unpredictability.
10. After the cataclasm, communities banded together to rebuild and support one another.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cataclasm