

CATALOG

Meaning: A catalog is a systematic list or collection of items, often organized for reference or display, such as resources in a library or products in a retail context.

1. The library produced a digital catalog of all its available resources.
2. She spent the afternoon browsing through the latest fashion catalog.
3. The museum's catalog included detailed descriptions of each exhibit.
4. He created a catalog of his extensive vinyl record collection.
5. The company updated its product catalog to reflect new inventory.
6. A well-organized catalog can save time when searching for specific items.
7. They decided to publish a catalog featuring local artists and their work.
8. The online catalog allows customers to filter products by category and price.
9. After the inventory check, they realized they needed to add several items to the catalog.
10. The catalog of services offered by the agency was impressive and diverse.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/catalog>