

CATALOGIZE

Meaning: To catalogize means to systematically organize and classify items, such as books or artworks, for easy reference and retrieval.

1. The librarian needs to catalogize the new collection of books by genre.
2. Before the exhibition opens, the curator will catalogize all the artworks.
3. It's essential to catalogize your research findings for easy reference later.
4. She decided to catalogize her extensive vinyl record collection by artist.
5. The software allows users to easily catalogize their digital photographs.
6. In order to maintain order, we should catalogize the supplies in the storage room.
7. The historian worked tirelessly to catalogize the ancient manuscripts.
8. To improve efficiency, the company plans to catalogize its inventory system.
9. Educators are encouraged to catalogize teaching resources for better accessibility.
10. The team must catalogize their findings to prepare for the upcoming presentation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/catalogize>