

CATAPELTIC

Meaning: Cataplectic refers to a sudden loss of muscle tone or control, often triggered by strong emotions, resulting in temporary paralysis or weakness.

1. The scientist explained the cataplectic symptoms experienced by some patients during intense emotions.
2. After the accident, she was diagnosed with cataplectic attacks that left her temporarily unable to move.
3. His cataplectic episodes were triggered by laughter, much to the amusement of his friends.
4. The doctor recommended lifestyle changes to help manage her cataplectic disorder.
5. During her cataplectic episodes, she would often collapse without warning.
6. The documentary shed light on the lesser-known aspects of cataplectic conditions.
7. Despite her cataplectic challenges, she excelled in her studies and maintained a positive outlook.
8. He had to avoid situations that could provoke his cataplectic reactions in public.
9. Researchers are studying the genetic factors that may contribute to cataplectic conditions.
10. Living with cataplectic episodes taught her resilience and patience in everyday life.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/catapeltic>