

CATAPHONIC

Meaning: Cataphonic refers to elements in language or literature that create anticipation by referencing something that will be mentioned later in the text.

1. The cataphonic elements in the poem created a sense of anticipation for the reader.
2. In linguistic studies, cataphonic references can lead to a clearer understanding of sentence structure.
3. The speaker used cataphonic phrases to draw attention to the main idea before revealing it.
4. Cataphonic constructions often appear in literary works to enhance dramatic effect.
5. Understanding cataphonic usage can improve one's writing style significantly.
6. In her analysis, she highlighted how cataphonic elements can change the meaning of a sentence.
7. The novel's cataphonic dialogue kept readers guessing about the characters' true intentions.
8. Linguists often debate the effectiveness of cataphonic versus anaphoric references in communication.
9. His cataphonic remarks in the presentation sparked curiosity among the audience.
10. The use of cataphonic descriptors in the narrative added layers of complexity to the storyline.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cataphonic>