

CATAPULT

Meaning: A catapult is a device used to hurl objects, typically stones or projectiles, through the air by means of a lever mechanism.

1. The ancient warriors used a catapult to launch stones over the castle walls.
2. During the science fair, the students built a catapult to demonstrate the principles of physics.
3. She felt a rush of adrenaline as the catapult launched her into the air during the amusement park ride.
4. The engineers designed a powerful catapult to test the strength of the new materials.
5. In the game, players can upgrade their catapult to increase its firing range and accuracy.
6. The catapult was a revolutionary invention that changed the dynamics of siege warfare.
7. He felt like a catapult, ready to launch into a new adventure at any moment.
8. They watched in awe as the catapult sent the flaming projectile soaring across the night sky.
9. The historical reenactors demonstrated how effective a catapult could be during a mock battle.
10. Her enthusiasm for the project catapulted it to the top of the class competition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/catapult>