

CATARRHAL

Meaning: Catarrhal refers to a condition characterized by inflammation of the mucous membranes, often resulting in excessive mucus production and respiratory symptoms.

1. The patient was diagnosed with a catarrhal infection that required immediate treatment.
2. Her catarrhal symptoms included a persistent cough and a runny nose.
3. The doctor explained that catarrhal conditions often arise during the cold winter months.
4. He felt a catarrhal blockage in his sinuses that made it difficult to breathe.
5. She used a humidifier to alleviate the discomfort caused by her catarrhal allergies.
6. Catarrhal fever can sometimes be mistaken for the common cold.
7. The catarrhal inflammation in his throat made it painful to swallow.
8. During the exam, the physician noted the signs of a catarrhal response in her lungs.
9. A catarrhal discharge from the nose indicated that the allergy season had begun.
10. They recommended herbal remedies to soothe her catarrhal symptoms effectively.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/catarrhal>