

CATASTROPHIST

Meaning: A catastrophist is a person who holds the belief that significant events, often of a catastrophic nature, will ultimately lead to disaster or major negative outcomes.

1. A catastrophist believes that significant events will eventually lead to disaster.
2. Many scientists dismiss the theories of the catastrophist as overly pessimistic.
3. The catastrophist perspective often focuses on the potential for environmental collapse.
4. In debates about climate change, the catastrophist view can provoke intense discussion.
5. Some authors adopt a catastrophist tone to highlight urgent global issues.
6. The catastrophist worldview can sometimes overshadow the possibilities of resilience and recovery.
7. Critics argue that the catastrophist narrative can induce unnecessary fear among the public.
8. His catastrophist predictions about the economy sparked widespread concern among investors.
9. The documentary featured a catastrophist who warned of impending natural disasters.
10. Many people find the catastrophist outlook compelling due to recent extreme weather events.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/catastrophist>