

CATCALL

Meaning: Catcall: a loud, often sexual or derogatory remark made by someone in public, typically directed at a person passing by, intended to attract attention or express disapproval.

1. The group of men began to catcall as she walked by, making her feel uncomfortable.
2. Catcalling is often dismissed as harmless, but it can have a significant impact on the victim.
3. She decided to speak out against the catcallers, advocating for respect and equality.
4. Despite the catcalls, she held her head high and continued on her way.
5. Many people believe that catcalling is a form of street harassment that should be condemned.
6. The catcall echoed off the walls of the alley, causing her to quicken her pace.
7. He was reprimanded for catcalling a colleague at the office party, highlighting the need for workplace respect.
8. The documentary focused on the experiences of women and their reactions to catcalling in urban environments.
9. After years of enduring catcalls, she finally found the courage to confront those who shouted at her.
10. Some argue that catcalling is a misguided attempt at flirting, while others see it as pure disrespect.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/catcall>