

CATCHABLE

Meaning: CATCHABLE: adjective describing something that can be easily caught or captured, often used in the context of animals or objects.

1. The fish in this lake are particularly catchable during the summer months.
2. His agile movements made him seem more catchable than the slower players on the field.
3. The game developers ensured that the tutorial levels were catchable for new players.
4. Her enthusiasm made the project feel more catchable to the rest of the team.
5. Despite their size, the birds were surprisingly catchable for skilled hands.
6. The new feature was designed to make the app more catchable among younger audiences.
7. The coach emphasized techniques that would make the ball easier and more catchable.
8. This particular species of butterfly is known for its vibrant colors and catchable nature.
9. The children's laughter was so infectious that it created a catchable joy in the air.
10. In the right conditions, the rare butterfly becomes significantly more catchable.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/catchable>