

CATECHISM

Meaning: Catechism is a summary or exposition of doctrine, often in question-and-answer format, used for religious instruction, particularly in Christianity.

1. The priest taught us the principles of faith through the catechism.
2. Children are often introduced to moral values through their church's catechism classes.
3. Studying catechism helped me understand the core beliefs of my religion more deeply.
4. She cherished her catechism lessons, which provided her with a strong spiritual foundation.
5. The catechism outlines the beliefs and practices expected of members of the faith.
6. In preparation for confirmation, he diligently reviewed his catechism notes.
7. The church offered a catechism program for those interested in joining the congregation.
8. Understanding the catechism can foster a sense of community and shared belief.
9. He found that the catechism addressed many of his questions about faith and life.
10. The catechism serves as a guide for moral decision-making in everyday situations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/catechism>