

CATEGORIZE

Meaning: To categorize means to classify or arrange items, concepts, or individuals into specific groups based on shared characteristics or criteria.

1. It can be challenging to categorize emotions when they are so complex.
2. Teachers often categorize students based on their learning styles to tailor instruction.
3. The organization aims to categorize the various species of plants in the region.
4. Before filing, it's important to categorize documents according to their relevance.
5. Researchers need to categorize the data accurately to draw valid conclusions.
6. She took the time to categorize her extensive collection of books by genre.
7. In a library, books are typically categorized by subject matter for easier access.
8. The app allows users to categorize their tasks for better time management.
9. Many websites categorize articles by topic to enhance user experience.
10. It's useful to categorize feedback into positive and negative to identify trends.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/categorize>