

CATER

Meaning: To provide what is needed or desired, especially in terms of food or service, to meet specific requirements or preferences.

1. We need to cater to our guests' dietary restrictions at the event.
2. The restaurant aims to cater to a wide range of culinary preferences.
3. She decided to cater her friend's wedding to make it extra special.
4. It's important to cater your marketing strategy to your target audience.
5. The company will cater lunch for all employees during the meeting.
6. He launched a new service to cater to remote workers' needs.
7. They plan to cater the fundraiser with a variety of local cuisines.
8. The school is looking for ways to cater to students with different learning styles.
9. To succeed in this market, we must cater to the latest trends and technologies.
10. The chef is known for his ability to cater exquisite meals for large gatherings.
11. The new restaurant decided to cater for both small and large events.
12. She hired a company to cater her wedding reception in the garden.
13. The food truck can cater to a variety of dietary preferences.
14. Can you cater this party with both vegetarian and gluten-free options?
15. They plan to cater a special menu for the charity gala next month.
16. The hotel offers services to cater business meetings and conferences.
17. He is known for his ability to cater to the needs of his clients.
18. The chef agreed to cater the event despite his busy schedule.
19. They need to cater their marketing strategy to reach younger audiences.
20. We can't afford to cater our own meals for the entire week.
21. We decided to cater the event with a variety of gourmet food options.
22. The company specializes in catering corporate events and weddings.

23. She hired a local chef to cater her daughter's birthday party.
24. They aim to cater to the diverse tastes of their international guests.
25. The new restaurant will cater to health-conscious diners.
26. He wanted to cater his speech to the interests of the audience.
27. They will cater lunch for the conference attendees next week.
28. It's important for businesses to cater to their customers' needs.
29. The menu was designed to cater to vegetarians and meat lovers alike.
30. The organization plans to cater workshops that focus on skill development.
31. We decided to cater the event ourselves to save on costs.
32. The restaurant will cater the wedding reception with a variety of gourmet dishes.
33. It's essential to cater to the needs of all participants in the workshop.
34. She hired a professional company to cater her daughter's birthday party.
35. To ensure success, the program must cater to different learning styles.
36. They plan to cater lunches for the conference attendees next month.
37. We should cater the menu to include vegetarian and gluten-free options.
38. His speech was designed to cater to the interests of a younger audience.
39. The local bakery agreed to cater the event with their famous pastries.
40. Catering to customer feedback can greatly improve the overall experience.