

CATHEDRALIC

Meaning: Cathedralic: relating to or resembling a cathedral, especially in grandeur, scale, or architectural style.

1. The cathedralic architecture of the old church drew visitors from far and wide.
2. As we entered the cathedralic space, a sense of awe washed over us.
3. Her voice had a cathedralic resonance that filled the entire hall.
4. The artist aimed to capture the cathedralic beauty of the ancient structure in his painting.
5. With its towering spires and intricate stained glass, the building had a distinctly cathedralic feel.
6. He described the symphony as having a cathedralic quality that elevated the listener's spirit.
7. The cathedralic atmosphere of the city center was enchanting during the evening light.
8. Walking through the cathedralic ruins, we could almost hear the echoes of the past.
9. The event was held in a cathedralic venue that inspired reflection and reverence.
10. There was something cathedralic about the way the sun illuminated the mountain peaks at dawn.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cathedralic>