

CAUGHT

Meaning: CAUGHT: past tense of catch; to have been surprised or captured in a particular situation or action.

1. She was caught off guard by the sudden announcement.
2. The cat was caught playing with a ball of yarn.
3. He caught the ball just before it hit the ground.
4. They were caught in the rain without umbrellas.
5. The detective caught the thief red-handed.
6. I caught a glimpse of the sunset through the trees.
7. She felt a surge of emotion when she caught his eye.
8. The athlete caught the attention of several scouts.
9. He caught her lie and confronted her about it.
10. The team was caught up in the excitement of the championship game.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/caught>