

CAUPONIZE

Meaning: Cauponize: to modify or treat a substance, particularly proteins or solutions, to improve stability or alter physical properties such as viscosity.

1. The researchers aimed to cauponize the complex proteins to enhance their stability.
2. In her latest experiment, she decided to cauponize the solution to observe the changes in viscosity.
3. The team was excited to cauponize the newly discovered compound for further testing.
4. It is essential to cauponize the mixture carefully to achieve the desired reaction.
5. Scientists often cauponize substances to better understand their molecular interactions.
6. He suggested they cauponize the samples before sending them for analysis.
7. To improve the efficiency of the reaction, they needed to cauponize the catalysts.
8. In the lab, they worked tirelessly to cauponize the materials for the upcoming trial.
9. When they cauponize the elements correctly, the results can be revolutionary.
10. The ability to cauponize different substances is crucial for advancing their research.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cauponize>