

CAUSATIVELY

Meaning: CAUSATIVELY: In a manner that brings about or causes an effect or outcome.

1. The teacher causatively influenced her students' decision to apply for scholarships.
2. The new policy was causatively linked to an increase in employee productivity.
3. He causatively adjusted the parameters of the experiment to yield clearer results.
4. The film's success was causatively related to its engaging plot and strong performances.
5. Causatively, the advertisement aimed to enhance consumer awareness about the product.
6. Her approach causatively shaped the team's dynamics, fostering better collaboration.
7. The findings causatively suggest that regular exercise improves mental health.
8. They causatively manipulated the variables to test their hypothesis thoroughly.
9. The unexpected weather changes causatively affected the outcome of the tournament.
10. In the study, the researchers causatively explored the impact of diet on health outcomes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/causatively>