

CAUSTICNESS

Meaning: Causticness refers to the quality of being harshly critical or sarcastic in speech, often causing emotional pain or discomfort to others.

1. Her causticness in conversations often left her friends feeling hurt and confused.
2. The causticness of his remarks made it difficult for anyone to approach him.
3. She admired the poet's causticness, finding beauty in his sharp observations about life.
4. Despite his causticness, he had a loyal following that appreciated his honesty.
5. The causticness in her tone suggested that she was far from pleased with the outcome.
6. His causticness was a defense mechanism, shielding him from deeper emotional vulnerabilities.
7. In debates, her causticness could sometimes overshadow her valid points.
8. The causticness of the critic's review stung, but it also motivated the artist to improve.
9. Even in jest, his causticness had a way of cutting deeper than intended.
10. They were drawn to her causticness, intrigued by the underlying passion in her words.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/causticness>