

CAUTER

Meaning: Cauter (noun): A medical instrument or device used to burn tissue to stop bleeding or prevent infection.

1. The surgeon used a cauter to stop the bleeding during the procedure.
2. In ancient times, soldiers would cauter their wounds to prevent infection.
3. She watched intently as the doctor explained how to cauter a small lesion safely.
4. The medical team decided to cauter the tissue to minimize the risk of further complications.
5. Using a cauter can be an effective way to manage severe hemorrhaging in emergency situations.
6. After the injury, the athlete needed to cauter the cut to return to the game quickly.
7. He was trained to cauter flesh in the field as part of his combat medic responsibilities.
8. The cauter left a small scar, a reminder of the accident that had occurred.
9. Cauterizing the area helped to seal the wound and promote faster healing.
10. She felt a mix of relief and anxiety as the doctor prepared to cauter the affected area.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cauter>