

CAUTIONER

Meaning: A cautioner is a person who warns or advises others to be careful or alert to potential dangers.

1. The cautioner always reminded the team to be careful when handling fragile equipment.
2. In the crowded market, the cautioner raised his voice to warn everyone about the slippery pavement.
3. As a seasoned hiker, she became the cautioner of the group, ensuring they followed safety protocols.
4. During the meeting, the cautioner pointed out the potential risks of the proposed project.
5. The cautioner's advice proved invaluable when the storm unexpectedly changed course.
6. He acted as the cautioner, highlighting the dangers of investing without proper research.
7. In her role as a teacher, she often found herself being the cautioner for her students' future.
8. The cautioner was known for her astute observations about the risks involved in the venture.
9. Before starting the experiment, the cautioner emphasized the importance of following the safety guidelines.
10. In his new position, he quickly adopted the role of cautioner, warning colleagues about the pitfalls of haste.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cautioner>