

CAVALIER

Meaning: Cavalier (adjective): showing a lack of proper concern or seriousness; dismissive or nonchalant.

1. His cavalier attitude toward deadlines often frustrated his coworkers.
2. She approached the challenge with a cavalier disregard for the potential consequences.
3. The knight was known for his cavalier spirit, always ready for adventure.
4. Despite the serious nature of the meeting, he maintained a cavalier demeanor.
5. Her cavalier approach to budgeting led to unexpected financial troubles.
6. He spoke with a cavalier confidence that impressed everyone in the room.
7. The cavalier treatment of customer complaints ultimately harmed the business.
8. She admired his cavalier approach to life, which seemed free from worry.
9. In a cavalier move, he decided to quit his job without a backup plan.
10. His cavalier sense of humor sometimes made it difficult for others to take him seriously.
11. The CEO's cavalier attitude towards employee concerns created a rift in the office culture.
12. Despite the risks involved, she made a cavalier decision to invest in a failing startup.
13. His cavalier disregard for the rules often landed him in trouble with the authorities.
14. With a cavalier smile, he brushed off the serious implications of his actions.
15. She approached the task with a cavalier spirit, believing that nothing could go wrong.
16. The diplomat's cavalier remarks during the negotiation process were met with shock.
17. In her cavalier quest for adventure, she often overlooked the dangers ahead.
18. His cavalier approach to planning led to a chaotic weekend trip.
19. The artist's cavalier brushstrokes conveyed both confidence and spontaneity.
20. They admired his cavalier charm, even if it sometimes bordered on reckless.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cavalier>