

CAVERNULOUS

Meaning: CAVERNULOUS: Adjective describing something that is hollow, spacious, or resembling a cavern, often characterized by large, empty spaces.

1. The cavernulous structure of the cave echoed with the sound of dripping water.
2. He marveled at the cavernulous veins of the ancient rock formations.
3. The artist depicted a cavernulous landscape filled with shadows and light.
4. Her voice resonated in the cavernulous hall, creating an ethereal atmosphere.
5. The cavernulous chambers beneath the earth were filled with stunning stalactites.
6. Explorers ventured into the cavernulous depths, eager for new discoveries.
7. The scientist studied the cavernulous organs of the animal for clues about its habitat.
8. A cavernulous expanse opened up before them, revealing the beauty of nature's artistry.
9. The architecture of the building featured cavernulous spaces designed for acoustics.
10. His thoughts wandered into the cavernulous recesses of his mind, where old memories lingered.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cavernulous>