

CAWKY

Meaning: 'CAWKY' refers to a bird or person exhibiting a disheveled or unkempt appearance, often characterized by ruffled feathers or a disapproving demeanor.

1. The cawky bird perched on the fence, its feathers ruffled by the wind.
2. She wore a cawky expression, clearly unimpressed by the news.
3. His cawky attitude during the meeting annoyed several colleagues.
4. The artist aimed to capture the cawky essence of the bustling city.
5. With a cawky glance, she dismissed the suggestion without a second thought.
6. They laughed at the cawky remarks made by their friend during dinner.
7. His cawky demeanor often masked his underlying insecurities.
8. The children found the cawky puppet entertaining, giggling at its antics.
9. Despite her cawky appearance, she was surprisingly kind-hearted.
10. His cawky comments always seemed to draw attention, for better or worse.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cawky>