

CEDARED

Meaning: CEDARED: (verb) past tense of 'cedar', meaning to furnish or decorate with cedar wood, imparting a distinctive aroma and aesthetic quality.

1. The ancient temple was cedared, giving it a sense of timelessness.
2. They cedared the entire room with rich wood, creating a warm atmosphere.
3. After the storm, the garden was transformed into a serene space filled with cedared benches.
4. The artist chose to use cedared frames for her latest collection of paintings.
5. He cedared his cabin in the woods to blend seamlessly with the natural surroundings.
6. The scent of cedared wood lingered in the air, reminding her of childhood summers.
7. They decided to build a cedared fence to enhance the rustic charm of their property.
8. The furniture in the living room was beautifully cedared, showcasing exquisite craftsmanship.
9. As the sun set, the cedared deck became a perfect spot for evening gatherings.
10. The architects envisioned a home that would be completely cedared, celebrating nature's beauty.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cedared>